THIS TRUE
HOT BLAST PRINCIPLE.

THIS picture shows the HOT BLAST RING in the great

Buck's Hot Blast Heater

that you are hearing so much about these days.

It shows how the cold air is drawn from the floor into the stove. This means that there is constant circulation in your room, a most important feature from a health-giving standpoint.

There is no "dead air" in your home.

We will demonstrate the workings of this wonderful heater in front of our store on Oct. 16 to 17.

After the demonstration we will give the Heater away.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Tolling Commission Company, of Indianapolis, bought yesterday from Josh Owens, of Montgomery county, 140 head of 1,600 pound cattle at 5½ cents.

—A fine cattle ranch of 66,500 acres, near Calgary, Alberta, British Columbia, has been bought for $400,000 by President Smith, of the Mormon church, and the land will be colonized by Mormons.

—At a sale of Poland-China swine at Masters, Kan., the yearling sow Thistlepot, that won honors at St. Louis, sold for $585; the boar Commander, $140, and Lady Louise, and old sow of a great record for $410.

—C. C. McDonald, buyer of S. & S., of New York, purchased at Mt. Sterling Saturday, of W. T. Phelps, 83 head of export steers at five cents. The cattle will weigh 1,600 pounds average, and are an extra good bunch.

—At Syracuse, N. Y., at the Grand Circuit races held Friday on the State Fair Grounds, 20,000 persons witnessed Audubon Boy in the rain pace a mile without wind shield in 2:00¼ in an effort to break the track record of 1:59½.

—Hopkinsville is now the headquarters of the buyers for foreign governments of dark tobacco. The Italian Regie is said to want from 5,000 to 7,000 hogsheads, and it is believed that prices have been agreed upon with the Planter's Protective Association ranging from $6.50 to $11.

—The J. D. Harris farm near Richmond, consisting of 1,300 acres, was sold at public auction Friday. The old home place, containing 368 acres, was bought by Mr. C. Coy, of Madison county, for $122.10 per acre. Judge A. Rollins Burnam bought 310 acres. The entire farm averaged $82 per acre. Over two thousand people were present at the sale.

—The sale of Hereford cattle at Danville, Ind., Tuesday, September 5, by Walter Hadley drew a large crowd, and while values did not rule high, the sale as a whole must be regarded as a fairly satisfactory one. There were a large number of young things in the sale and the entire offering was only in medium flesh. Forty-two head sold for $3,360, an average of $82. The top of the sale was $300, paid by A. G. Blair, Bridgeford, Ind., for the yearling bull, Bright Lad, Jr., a grandson, of Kansas Lad, and out of a granddaughter of Acrobat.

—By his victory in the annual Champion stakes at Sheepshead Bay recently, Sysonby increased his winnings to the enormous total of $194,438. Of this amount he has won more than $140,000 this year. In point of amount won, Sysonby tops all horses that have raced on the American turf, except Domino, whose place at the head of the Castleton stud, the great son of Melton-Optime is destined to take, Domino's winning totals, in his three year's turf career, amounted to $193,550. This is Sysonby's second racing year, and if he races next year, he is expected to go over the $200,000.

After Her Heritage.

Miss Charlotte Early, of Lynchburg, Va., has filed suit in the Nicholas county Circuit Court through her attorneys, against the Blue Lick Springs Company. The petition states that she is entitled to the Blue Lick Springs by inheritance. She brings suit for the land and for $50,000 for water sold by the company.

The ground in controversy is the famous old Blue Lick Springs, ten miles from Carlisle, before the war one of the most noted summer resorts in the South. They have in the last few years been owned and controlled by a company of Carlisle capitalists.

The property is very valuable especially so since there is an opportunity for the Springs having an outlet by the proposed Carlisle, Millersburg, Paris and Maysville traction line.

Geo. S. Burroughs, of Louisville, and Judge Wm. H. Holt, ex-Chief Justice of the Appellate court, represent Miss Early.

AMUSEMENTS.

—Last evening The Via Stock Co. opened a week's engagement at the Paris Grand in the beautiful moral play "Beware of Men." It is a popular price show and well worth the money. They play "Moths of Society" to-night.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Martha Craig, aged 84 years, died in Covington, Sunday night. She leaves no children, but one grandson, Wm. C. Orr, of Mexico. Mrs. Craig was an aunt of Mrs. E. P. Claybrook, of Hutchison, and Mrs. Wm. Remington, of this city.

—Mrs. Nora W. Burley, aged about 30, wife of Arthur L. Burley, of Cypress street, died Friday morning of consumption. The funeral was at the residence at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster. Burial at Paris cemetery.

A Good Rule to Follow.

When you want to buy first-class groceries go to a groceryman to make your purchase.

When you want first-class dry goods go to a dry goods merchant to make your purchase.

When you want a first-class pair of shoes go to a shoe merchant to make your purchase.

When you want a suit of clothes go to a clothing merchant to make your purchase.

And never forget that when you want anything in the millinery line go to the leader in millinery, Mrs. Corne Watson Baird, to make your purchase.

Lost.

An initial ring, with the letter "T," lost on the streets of Paris. Leave at News office and receive suitable reward.
